

PZ CUSSONS GHANA LIMITED ANNOUNCES PROPOSED DE-LISTING FROM THE GHANA STOCK EXCHANGE

Accra, 18th October, 2018 - PZ Cussons Ghana Limited (“PZ Cussons” or the “Company”) wishes to announce the Company’s intention to de-list from the Ghana Stock Exchange (the “De-Listing”) subject to Shareholder approval, and approval from the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and/or the Ghana Stock Exchange (“GSE”).

At the Company’s Annual General Meeting (“AGM”) scheduled to be held on 11th November, 2019 a resolution will be proposed with regard to the proposed De-Listing.

The proposed De-Listing is in line with PZ Cussons plans to achieve operational efficiency, by providing management of the company more time and resources to focus on running and expanding the business, its distribution network and reach, thereby ensuring consumer satisfaction.

PZ Cussons remains driven by our commitment to continue expanding our business through providing consumers with goods of the highest quality standards at affordable prices, while making reasonable profit and maintaining our strong family values and respect for the environment in which we operate. The proposed De-Listing is not expected to impact job security, day-to-day operations and relationships with stakeholders.

PZ Cussons will provide shareholders and the general public with further information on the De-Listing if the resolution to de-list is passed by PZ Cussons’ shareholders.

About PZ Cussons

PZ Cussons is a subsidiary of PZ Cussons (Holdings) Limited, a multinational consumer goods business which manufactures and distributes some of the most familiar household brands in the world, from Imperial Leather to Cussons Baby and Morning Fresh.

PZ Cussons has a strong product portfolio that includes well established brands such as Camel, Cussons Baby, Imperial Leather, Nunu Milk, Carex, Drastin, Premier and Robb.

Issued by:

PZ Cussons Ghana Limited

Plot 27/3-27/7 Sanyo Road,
Industrial Area, Tema
P.O Box 628
Accra, Ghana

END ***