

Sandra Adu-Gyamfi joined Fan Milk Plc in June 2022 as the Legal and Compliance Manager and was promoted to her current role (General Counsel, Ghana & Francos) in January 2023. Prior to this, she spent five years at Guinness Ghana, a Diageo company listed on the Ghana Stock Exchange, where she served as Assistant Legal Counsel, Secretary to the Audit & Risk Committee, and supported the Legal Director.

Her interest in corporate governance began in 2015 when she became Company Secretary at NDK Capital, a local investment firm. This role sparked her passion for company secretarial work and set the stage for her future SUCCess in legal and compliance roles.

Sandra holds a Master of Laws (LLM) in International Corporate & Commercial Law from King's College London and has been qualified to practice law in Ghana since 2013. She also earned an LLB and a degree in French and Philosophy from the University of Ghana, Legon, as well as advanced French language certifications from the Université de Caen, France.
